The rating lists are publicly accessible. Should you wish to not figure on the associations rating lists, please contact the data controller at mahjong@mahjong.dk and your data will be hidden.

Division games, standings and the qualifications are publicly accessible. Should you wish to not figure on these lists, please contact the data controller at mahjong@mahjong.dk and your data will be hidden.

7. Consent

In most cases our data processing will have another legal basis than your explicit consent. Therefore we will only seek your consent in the rare cases it is necessary for the purposes listed above.

If we seek your consent, it is voluntary whether you want to give it, and you can withdraw your consent at any time, by informing us.

When we collect personal information from children and youths, we estimate whether the child is allowed to provide the specific information. If not, we will seek consent from a parent or guardian. We regard children of 15 years and older as able to give their own consent.

Should we obtain personal information from children through apps or social media, children down to 13 years old may provide consent.

8. Sharing your personal information

In connection with mahjong activities, we share information about participation and results with relevant mahjong organizations.

We do not share your personal data with companies for marketing purposes without your express consent.

9. Storing and deletion of your personal information

We will store your personal data in a period after the end of membership according to the following criteria:

Due to practical and administrative concerns, we store your common information for up to 3 years after your withdrawal from the association.

10. Your rights

When we process your data, you have a number of rights as specified by the General Data Protection Regulation:

The right of access

The right to rectification

The right to be forgotten

The right to restriction of processing

The right to data portability

The right to object

You can assert your rights, including objecting to our processing, by contacting us. Our contact info is listed above.

For example, should you contact us with a request to delete or correct your personal information, we will investigate whether the criteria are fulfilled, and if so, proceed with the deletion or correction as soon as possible.

You can at any time lodge any complaints with the relevant authorities, such as Datatilsynet

11. Revision of the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to make changes in this Privacy Policy from time to time. If changes are made, the date at the top of this Policy will be changed. At any time, the currently applicable Privacy Policy will be accessible through our webpage. You will be informed about any major changes.
